

Data protection statement of DSL-electronic GmbH

We are glad you are interested in our website and our company. In spite of careful monitoring, we assume no responsibility for external links to third-party content.

The protection of the personal data collected, processed and used when you visit our website is very important to us. Your data is protected in accordance with the legal regulations. In the following, you will find some information on which data is collected during your visit to www.dsl-electronic.de and how it is used:

1. Data collection and processing

Each visit to our website and each download of a file stored there is recorded. Data is stored for internal system-related and statistical purposes. The following items are recorded: name of the file downloaded, date and time of downloading, volume of data downloaded, confirmation of successful download, web browser and requesting domain.

The IP addresses of the requesting computers are also recorded.

Additional personal data is only collected if you provide this information voluntarily, for example in the context of a request made via the contact form on our website.

2. Use and disclosure of personal data

If you have provided us with personal data, we will only use it to answer your requests and process contracts entered into with you as well as for the purposes of technical administration.

Your data is only passed on to third parties or transmitted to them in any other way if this is necessary for the purpose of contract processing (in particular the disclosure of order data to suppliers), if it is necessary for invoicing purposes or if you have given your prior consent. You are entitled to withdraw your consent with future effect at any time.

The personal data saved is deleted when you withdraw your consent to data storage, if this data is no longer necessary for achieving the aim pursued by data storage or if storage of this data is not permitted for other legal reasons.

3. Right to information

On written request, we will gladly inform you of the data on your person stored in the system.

Safety note:

We endeavour to take all technical and organizational measures available to us in order to ensure that your personal data is not accessible to third parties. We are not able to guarantee total data security in e-mail communication, so we recommend that you send confidential information by post.
